

With _connect.BRAIN V5, Bizerba industrial scales, labeling systems and printers can be connected with a single communication software. Regardless of the connected device type, they communicate via the Bizerba standardized BxNet language and thus control all their processes. This communication tool permits all industrial scales, labeling devices and printers to be connected very quickly and efficiently to a customer-specific EDP.

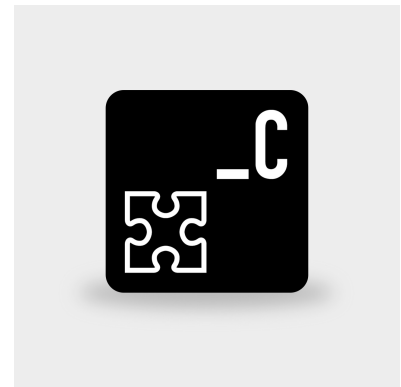

More information
High performance with a wide range of solutions and options.

Product description

Standardized BX-Net language for communication with Bizerba device _connect.BRAIN V5 makes workflows highly efficient. This tool takes care of most of the otherwise elaborate interface programming.

Highlights

- Standard EDP connection of all Bizerba Industry devices
- Common communication language (GX-NET)
- Fail-proof communication layer (used for many years)
- APP access via _connect web service
- Support of SAP S4/Hana with Secure Network Communications (SNC)
- Various standard interfaces: 2File, 2DB, 2SAP, DCOM, ActiveX, Web service (SOAP and REST)

My Bizerba

We offer you solutions from a single source which can be customized and allow you to respond to any change in a flexible manner. Benefit from costs which can be planned and efficient processes. We are happy to advise you.